

Thank you to everyone who took part in our baking competition.

The winners will be announced in celebration assembly on Friday.

As it was a very tough decision and all children put a lot of effort into their decorating, there will be a small prize for everyone who took part.