

Parent's
Questions

Should I encourage boyfriends and girlfriends in primary school?

Obviously how you parent your child is your business however we can offer advice which might help.

We don't encourage children to have boyfriends and girlfriends in school as it can cause a distraction and cause some children to feel pressured and anxious. We encourage friendships and safe relationships through our Personal Social Emotional and Health education. Our advice is to talk to you children about respecting each other and encourage talking to people they trust.
