Prevent Action Plan

DUTY	WHAT THIS MEANS	ACTION	BY WHOM
Risk Assessment
Assess the risk of children being drawn into terrorism or extremism	The school has identified a Prevent Lead.	All staff know who the Prevent Lead is and that this person acts as a source of advice and support. Our DSL team act as Prevent Leads also and are identified on our Safeguarding information posters and Safeguarding policy	All Staff The DSL
	Staff can demonstrate a general understanding of the risks affecting children and young people	All Staff have read up to date version of “Keeping Children Safe in Education”² The Prevent Lead has informed staff of their duties as set out in ‘The Prevent Duty’. All staff receive annual in-house Safeguarding training and update training when appropriate, to ensure staff are aware of revised guidelines and recommendations	All staff The DSL
	Staff can identify individual children who may be at risk of radicalisation and how to support them	All staff have completed Channel online training which informs staff about signs and indicators of radicalisation annually	All staff
	There is a clear procedure in place for protecting children at risk of radicalisation.	All staff have read the Safeguarding Policy which includes a statement regarding the school’s “Prevent” duty. All staff understand how to record and report concerns regarding risk of radicalisation.	All staff

The School will prohibit extremist speakers and events in the school	The school exercises “due diligence” in relation to requests from external speakers and organisations booking to use school premises.	Request an outline of what the speaker intends to cover Research the person, organisation to establish whether they have demonstrated extreme views/actions Deny permission for people/organisations to use school premises if they have links to extreme groups or movements Provide justification for their decisions in writing	SLT/admin

IT/Computing Policies and the curriculum

Ensure that children are safe from terrorist and extremist material when accessing the internet in schools.	The school has policies in place which make reference to the “Prevent Duty”.	Safeguarding Policy ☒ Online Safeguarding Policy	SLT and DSL
	Children are taught about on-line safety with specific reference to the risk of radicalisation.	Online Safety and PSHE work in class as part of the curriculum	SLT and DSL
	Fulfil the “Keeping Children Safe in Education” requirement to ensure appropriate internet filters and monitoring systems are in place.	Filters are in place and monitoring is completed appropriately	SLT and DSL

Building Children’s Resilience to Radicalisation and/or Extremism

Ensure that children have a “safe environment” in which to discuss “controversial issues”.	Children develop “the knowledge, skills and understanding to prepare them to play a full and active part in society”.	A safe learning environment is created across the school, behaviours which harm the ability of different individuals and groups to work together are challenged. Through PSHE/Citizenship, and other curriculum activities, pupils are able to explore political, religious and social issues Pupils are taught about the diverse national, regional and ethnic identities in the UK and the need for mutual respect. Relevant staff are aware of the government guidance:	All Staff
