

Look at the picture - brainstorm all the words & phrases you can think of to describe the picture around it first. Using these write a setting description using: similes, metaphors, personification and expanded noun phrases.

Think about using the five sense to help you; they are what you can see, smell, hear, feel and taste.

